

State of Vermont
Executive Department
A Recognition

- WHEREAS, Vermonters light the way in many ways – we are known for our commitment to community, our willingness to serve, and for going the extra mile to help those in need; and
- WHEREAS, our state and nation continue to move forward, Vermonters continue to set the example; and
- WHEREAS, in addition to organized efforts to help our friends, families and neighbors, sometimes it is the little things – those simple, random, everyday acts of kindness and goodwill – that can make all the difference; and
- WHEREAS, Vermonters have always stepped up to meet the moment, going above and beyond to do their part, showing that we are much stronger when we are united; and
- WHEREAS, to call more attention to the rays of kindness and good deeds happening throughout Vermont, and the good people making them happen, I am shining a light on acts of kindness, selfless service and goodwill happening throughout our state; and
- WHEREAS, Amy Anderson, of Waterbury, has been nominated for her efforts to spread joy and kindness to all she meets and her contributions to her community; and
- WHEREAS, Amy Anderson has made a difference in the lives of foster families, through incredible generosity, compassion and support.
- NOW, THEREFORE, I, Philip B. Scott, Governor, hereby recognize and honor for lighting the way and being a ray of kindness and goodwill.

AMY ANDERSON

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State of Vermont on this 17th day of December, A.D. 2021.

Philip B. Scott
Governor

Brittney C. Wilson
Secretary of Civil and Military Affairs