Dear Amy:

I want to thank you for your efforts to spread joy and kindness to your community and recognize you for your work to help improve the lives of Vermont foster and adopted children. Your dedication to this cause is truly inspiring.

From connecting families to resources through your Facebook group to providing affordable clothing through Amy's Armoire to donations and more – many families have benefited from your help and I'm sure are grateful for it. To thank you for this important message of optimism and hope, I've declared an official recognition of your efforts through our Rays of Kindness initiative.

Your compassion is one of the many reasons to feel hopeful and inspired. It's Vermonters like you – who band together during hard times – that have helped us light the way for the nation in our acts of kindness and community spirit.

Thank you again, and I hope you continue your good work.

Sincerely,
